

Pablo Marvin

Pablo Marvin '66, a native of Mexico City, Mexico, is a real estate manager and developer. He graduated from Texas A&M in 1966 with a bachelor of arts in business management.

He has had a long and prosperous career in Mexico City. He worked at Aceros Nacionales, S.A. in Mexico City as production manager and marketing manager. He later founded Plasticos Precisos, S.A. in Mexico City, a plastic extrusion company, and worked at Deutz, S.A. de C.V. in Mexico City, one of Latin America's largest holding companies at the time. Marvin also founded and operated a chain of restaurants called Los Tocayos, Inc. in Denver, Colorado. He currently manages and develops real estate in Mexico City. He also serves on the Board of Trustees of the Allen Academy.

Marvin has been an advisor and friend of Texas A&M University for many years. In 1993, he and his wife donated the space for and helped to establish Texas A&M's Center in Mexico City on the 15th floor of their building situated in Colonia Juarez, one of the key business areas in Mexico City.