

William H. Mobley

Dr. Bill Mobley is the Visiting Chair Professor of Management at the University of Macau. Mobley also serves on the board of directors of several firms and foundations including: Chairman, Green Packaging Solutions Ltd, Hong Kong; Chairman, WGP Investments Ltd., Hong Kong; Chairman, Mobley Group Pacific Ltd. Hong Kong and Shanghai; Kan Pak China (Shanghai) Ltd.; and the Ta Tong Education and Culture Foundation, Taipei.

Mobley previously served as manager of HR research and succession planning for PPG Industries; as dean of the College of Business Administration and later president of Texas A&M University; and as Chancellor of the Texas a & M University System. He is President Emeritus at Texas A & M University and Professor Emeritus at China Europe International Business School in Shanghai.

Mobley earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology and economics from Denison University and his doctorate degree in industrial-organizational psychology from the University of Maryland, College Park. He also has been awarded honorary degrees from the University of the Americas in Pueblo Mexico, the University of Akron, and the Chinese University of Hong Kong. He has served as a visiting professor at National Taiwan University, Hong Kong University of Science and Technology, and as a visiting fellow at Cornell University. He is executive editor of Advances in Global Leadership, (Emerald Group Publishing) as well as author of multiple articles and books on turnover, leadership and multinational organizations. Bill resides in Shanghai and Macau with his wife Marjorie.