

Bill Way

W.J. (Bill) Way is senior vice president, Americas for BG Group plc.

Bill joined BG in 2007, where he has responsibility for BG's LNG and Exploration & Production operations in the US, Canada, Trinidad & Tobago and South America (excluding Santos Basin), the company's US power assets, global shipping and health, safety and environment across the Americas Region.

Previously, Bill was with ConocoPhillips, where he held numerous senior leadership positions including President of Dubai Petroleum Company and Managing Director of Phoenix Park Gas in Trinidad.

Bill also currently serves as a member of the advisory boards of The University of St. Thomas and the Mays Business School at Texas A&M. He formerly served as president of the M.I.T. Sloan Fellows Board of Governors and chairman of the American School of Dubai board of directors.

Raised in Texas, Bill graduated from Texas A&M University, with a Bachelor of Science degree in industrial engineering and is a registered professional engineer in Texas. He also earned a master of business administration degree from The Sloan School at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.